Post Conference Tour

Moab and Red Cliffs Lodge are a magnificent setting for a Western Recreational Adventure. You'll travel less than four hours from Salt Lake for an experience that will last a lifetime. This incredible weekend includes two night's accommodations, 3 meals, round trip transportation, professional tour guide service, Jeep and Jetboat Tour, and admission to National Parks.

Day 1: Salt Lake City/ Moab –

Travel south past Utah Lake, through Utah's scenic Wasatch Mountains. Descend through the railroad town of Helper and coal mining town of Price. This afternoon, arrive at Arches National Park, which has more natural stone arches than any other place in the world. After time to explore and photograph, drive to Red Cliffs Lodge, your base for the next two nights.
Includes Lunch & Dinner

Day 2: Canyonlands National Park by Jet Boat & Jeep

Cruise by jetboat via the Colorado River through Canyonlands National Park under Dead Horse Point, a giant overlook towering 2,000 feet into the sky. Next, travel by jeep up an old Indian Trail to Islands of the Sky. From this flat mountaintop, look down 2,000 feet to the Colorado and Green Rivers. This evening is free for shopping and dinner at your choice of several restaurants in Moab.

Includes Breakfast & Lunch

Day 3: Moab/salt Lake City

This morning, see Dead Horse Point from the top down. Next, head north toward Salt Lake City following the western edge of the rugged Tavaputs Plateau with vast wilderness areas and historic ranches.

Includes Breakfast & Lunch

Also Included:

all luggage handling (one suitcase per person); and all necessary tips (bellman, doormen, and dining room tips for all included meals.)

Not Included:

Meals (other than mentioned in the itinerary); Items of a personal nature (i.e. room service, telephone, liquor, valet, etc.); Customary end-of-tour gratuity for escort and driver.
